Supreme Trust in Wilson.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Record sent the following dispatch to his paper:

Political advisers of President Wilson are convinced, after an extensive canvass of conditions in various parts of the country, which was completed to-day, that the president is now at the highest point of popularity he has enjoyed since his inauguration. The President's advisers are full of confidence that he is approaching the period when the national campaign of both political parties will actually be launched, with a tremendous advantage of personal prestige over any of the prospective opposing candidates.

The optimism of the practical politicians of the Administration is based on two factors, the President's present popularity and the disorganized condition of the Republican party, which has neither a popularly chosen candidate nor an event fixed by circumstances indelibly in the minds of the voters of the country. An analysis of political conditions throughout the nation, prepared on the basis of information gleaned by the White House from the various sources of political information at its command, is illuminating.

The trouble with the Republican party lies in this: It lives from day to day on a diet whose qualities are variable and deceiving. With its unresponsive ear to the ground, it thinks it can sense an issue, but finds it, as new circumstances daily arise, a hollow mockery. Their trouble has been to get a candidate and to find an issue suitable to the exigencies of each day.
Now that Hughes is in the saddle they are at sea to know whether "the rider can manage the horse the party rulers select for him;" whether it will be one of military or pacifist leaning. While the Republican party is floundering around about in desperate straits, uncertain as to the candidate and the issues, the atmospheric conditions surrounding the Democratic situation are steadily improving.

As to the Democratic situation, there is practical unanimity as to the serious character. That standard-bearer, the President, unlike Taft, improves with age—a candidate who has in his hands opportunities to play from day to day a dominating part in the affairs of the world.

A great crisis may shatter irrevocably every Republican hope and lead to sure and certain victory for the Democratic party.

With the passage of the Rural Credits bill, the Shipping bill, the preparedness program, the bill creating a Tariff Commission and other acts of major importance, there must be a just assessment rendered in the court of public opinion when a full review of the Democratic record is had.

Indicted on False Cattle Claims.

St. Louis, June 9th.—Hal Mangum, a cattle raiser and shipper of La Pryor, Tex., and Levi Old, an attorney of Uvalde, Tex., were indicted by the Federal grand jury here yesterday on charges of having placed false claims against railroads operating in Texas, in the shipping of cattle interstate from Texas to St. Louis and other points. A second charge of defraud was found against Old. The Interstate Commission obtained the indictments and is prosecuting the cases.

It is alleged that Mangum and Old would load cars with cattle and then put in bogus claims for delays, bruising of stock in transit or failure of the roads to deliver in time to escape decline in market values. Claims were made by them against the Southern Pacific, International & Great Northern, Iron Mountain, San Antonio, Uvalde & Gulf and the M. K. & T. railroads.

Catching Up.

Under Woodrow Wilson the United States is catching up with the rest of the world. After years of Republican failure even to propose action, President Wilson and the Democrats of Congress have faced the rural credits question and have almost completed legislation upon it.

During all the years of Republican domination—

In Germany the "Landschaften" system, organized and controlled by the government, was providing loans to farmers at 3 1/2 per cent.

In France the "Credit Foncier" a government bank, was providing loans to farmers at four per cent.

In Russia the "Peasant Land Bank," was lending to farmers at four per cent.

In Switzerland land-credit associations, operated by the state, were taking care of the needs of the farmers at three and four per cent.

And in Denmark, Great Britain, Sweden, Japan and Canada, by various plans, the government had devised means whereby the financial requirements of the farming population were provided for on a fair basis.

Meeker Attacks Dry's Grant.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—In a speech in the House to-day Representative Meeker made a spirited attack on an item in the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill setting aside $10,000 to complete arrangements for the entertainment of the fifteenth International Congress on Alcoholism to be held in the United States.

Mr. Meeker called attention to the fact that $40,000 already is available for entertaining this congress, and then read the names of American delegates to similar congresses held in Europe in recent years. The list included many of the leading Antisocial League workers and other prohibition-ists, and few scientific men.

"I should be glad to appropriate funds to call together a body of men or identified with any particular group of so-called reformers at so much per reform," said Mr. Meeker.

"This body of men and women, under gradually increasing political power in this country, has been steadily increasing the amount asked from the Treasury and the Antisocial League crowd—prohibitionists—and now they have got their hands in the treasury to the tune of $40,000 and are asking an additional $10,000.

It is nothing but common snatching from the treasury of the United States by a group of individuals who boast that their organization has an income of more than a million dollars a year."

Burk & Hobbs at Farmington.

(Farmington News)
The big tabernacle being erected on the Pin lot for the Burk-Hobbs revival is rapidly nearing completion.
On account of the heavy rains which fell almost all of Tuesday work did not begin on the tabernacle in earnest until Wednesday, but it has been hustled along at a lively rate since that time. Rev. R. E. Foard, of Festus, has charge of the work on the building and is an expert at the business.
Most of the work on the big building has been donated.

The dimensions of the structure are 32x52 with a choir loft addition large enough to accommodate 150 singers.
The seating capacity of the main building will be 1500. Provision for the easy erection of additional seating space has been made.

The meeting will not begin until June 18th. A message was received on Thursday of last week stating that it agreeable to the local committee the evangelists would come here in time to begin the meeting on June 11th. The committee wired that everything would be in readiness for the meeting by that time. On Monday the following message was received by Rev. O. H. L. Cunningham, of the local committee:

"Poteau, Okla., June 5, 1916. Under the leadership of Burk & Hobbs the city of Poteau is now being shaken by the power of God, as never in its history. Our leading men are turning to God in great numbers. It would be a religious disaster to close before June 11th."

A Laudable Effort.

(Farmington Times.)
Hugh Steele, a merchant and President of the Commercial Club at Bismarck, was in Farmington Monday.

His principal purpose here was to try and interest the Commercial Club at this place in joining the Bismarck Commercial Club in an effort they are making to get a motor route established on the Illinois Southern from that place to Flat River. The idea is to have four or five round trips made between those two points daily, a distance of only about 10 miles.

Mr. Steele is sanguine that the establishment of such service would pay from its very inception, and that it would prove to be immeasurably profitable, not only to Bismarck, but to Farmington, as well. For instance, such service would furnish Farmington with St. Louis morning papers by 7 A. M. It would also enable passengers to get in or out of Farmington at almost any time of day, over the Illinois Southern or the Iron Mountain, in any direction. For Bismarck it would be almost as advantageous, as a number of residents there are employed in the Lead Belt, and such a line would enable them to get to their work and return home each evening.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of our dear ones, who departed this life one year ago. Death visited our home the 4th of last May and claimed our son and brother, Gussie H. Williams.

On June 7th, again our home was made sad by the death of husband and father.

One by one the frail links part, Hand drops from hand, and heart from heart.

One by one the sweet things given,
To brighter realms, go back to heaven.
Death is the grim antagonist of life; and yet how seldom we think of it until the shadow falls across our own path hiding forever from our eyes all traces of our loved ones, whose living smiles were the sunlight of our existence. Death! Do we realize it in all its horror, as we followed our loved ones to the silent city? How hard it was to realize that they were gone. Gone from the happy home life and we were left to take up the burdens of life anew, unshared by their love and sympathy.

But such are the changes of life; the hand that holds ours to-day in tender clasp of love may soon be beyond our reach in the cold and silent tomb.
Friends may think the wound is healing but little do they know the sorrow there is concealed. How we miss their presence, the sound of their voice, no one knows only those who have followed loved ones to the silent city. The memory of those dear ones will never fade, and our hearts still love to linger where our dear ones are laid.

Sadly missed by family.
MRS. NELLIE YRETON.

Keep the Kidneys Well.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Ironton People Know How to Save it.

Many Ironton people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills —a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is an Ironton citizen's recommendation.

Robert Hoison, Ironton, says: "I suffered from kidney trouble in a bad form. When the kidney secretions were passing, they pained me terribly and I had pains in my sides, hips and over my kidneys. I also had rheumatic pains. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me of the aches and pains."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hoison had. Foster-McIlburn Co.,
